ON THE ROAD To The Title

By David Cooper

CENTRAL COAST vs MACARTHUR RAMS

This could well be one very tough game for Macarthur. A few weeks ago, I would have tipped the Rams to win easily but they are in a little spot of bother for this match. Two losses on the trot and their player strength will surely come to the test this weekend against a Coasties side themselves lacking confidence. The loss to Easts was also compounded by the loss to O'Connell, Lloyd and Kerr to red cards, meaning they will miss this match for certain and testing Casey de Bruin's back up players. The Coasties have a rivalry with Macarthur going back to their 1st Division days and I'm sure they would love to beat them in this one. Their form is not great but they always give there all in every match and will make life tough for the Rams. The Rams however have too much at stake and should get home narrowly.

RYDE CITY vs PARRAMATTA

Another game if you had asked me weeks ago, Parramatta would win easily. The Eagles though had a very rough week including a draw between these two sides in their midweek round nine deferred game. That letdown probably had something to do with Sutherland upsetting the Eagles last weekend that has killed off their minor premiership charge. Ryde like these matches and have more often than not this year got results in games you would expect them lose. They make you work hard for any points and if they can jag a goal or two, will go close to causing an upset. However with their finals chances tentatively on the line and a capacity to hurt sides on the rebound, I would expect Parramatta to exact some revenge for that draw and win this game, that would secure their finals spot.

SUTHERLAND vs ST. GEORGE

For the majority of the season, this match was going to decide the wooden spoon. But in the past seven weeks, Sutherland has found a new lease of life and picked up three wins and three draws to move right away. Unfortunately the same cannot be said for St. George, who are still struggling at the foot of the table and consigned to the fact they will finish bottom in 1998. The Sharks 2-1 win over Parramatta last weekend will have given them even more confidence and with Craig Hobbs still scoring goals and Paul Henderson stopping them, I find it hard to see how St. George can get the three points. The local derby is always a tough encounter but the Sharks get my money in this one.

CANTERBURY vs LEICHHARDT

This game is Leichhardt's last chance for a chance at the finals. Last weeks loss to Bankstown hurt them very badly and are now four points shy of Easts and the Berries. A win over Canterbury and a hopeful Easts defeat, will put Leichhardt firmly back in the hunt but they must improve on last weeks showing to achieve that. They will be hoping Jay Anderson can overcome his hamstring strain, for before his departure Leichhardt were looking good in attack. Defence was very shaky against Bankstown and were made to pay dearly on two occasions. Jim Nikas has had a very good year for the Berries and he earned his side another three points last weekend. But with Blacktown and Macarthur to follow, this is a must win for Canterbury and at home they are always hard to beat and will just prevail against the Tigers.

BANKSTOWN vs BLACKTOWN

Blacktown continued its march towards the premiership title with a convincing win over Central Coast, to leave them alone at the top. They are firmly in the box seat now and are not about to let this one slip away according to several Blacktown officials. This however will be a tough game against a side they have built up a good rivalry with in recent years. The Lions are coming off a good win over Leichhardt, again showing their inconsistency this year. The Lions will have the hard task of prizing the stiffest defence in the league and containing Jon Angelucci, who is in excellent form in front of goals. Pat Bradley is in some doubt with a groin strain but even if he should miss this game, Blacktown should still get the three points.

BONNYRIGG vs EASTERN SUBURBS

It seems I hit a little nerve when I said last week that if I were going to pick a side now - it would be Blacktown. And while I will agree Bonnyrigg is also in good form at the present moment, but Blacktown was top of the table and have a better run home than the Eagles. Eagles coach John Turner hoever is still adamant he has the best team in the league and will win the premiership and grand final. But the facts remain, they must win two big games against Eastern Suburbs and Parramatta in the next two weeks, if they are to achieve this. Both Easts and Parramatta are fighting desperately for top five places, Easts more so, as they are right on the fringe and need every point. Bonnyrigg and Easts had wins last weekend and both will be close to full strength ensuring a good clash. This is a hard game to predict and while my money will be with the home side, it wouldn't surprise me if I lost it.

TIGERS FINALS HOPES DASHED

Leichhardt Tigers semi finals chances nose-dived after they slumped to a 3-1 defeat to Bankstown City Lions at Lambert Park.

The defeat has seen Leichhardt drop four points behind fifth placed teams Eastern Suburbs and Canterbury-Marrickville, who both recorded important victories.

The game was a must win for them and despite a bright start, were punished for too many mistakes at the back by a hungry Lions, keen to make a good finish to an inconsistent season.

The Lions even survived the last 15 minutes with just ten men after Michael Hawrysiuk was sent-off for his second yellow card offence, to score the vital third goal right at the end.

Leichhardt though started strongly, with Jay Anderson proving a handful for Lions defence. He forced a great save from David Aceski in the 5th minute but two minutes later he had his side in front, heading home at the back post after terrific work on the right flank by Leon Alexiou.

Mile Todoroski should have evened things up ten minutes later but skied his shot over the bar with an empty net in front of him.

With Anderson's departure from a hamstring strain midway through the first half, went much of Leichhardt's attacking authority and soon afterwards Bankstown equalised. Stuart Van Bentum was able to break free on the left, crossing low and hard into the six-yard box, where Steve Eagleton was able to slam home.

However the telling moment of the match came just before half time, when Tigers defender Tom Bazdaric missed the ball, allowing Tony Velevski to run through and crash his shot past Bob Catlin.

Todoroski nearly had Bankstown further ahead soon after the break, Catlin turning his shot away, while Mendo Lozevski shot awfully after being given a clear sight at goal by Todoroski.

With 15 minutes to go, Hawrysiuk brought down John Buonavoglia and received his second yellow card and marching orders.

Leichhardt tried hard for an equaliser, Steven Cklamovski shooting across the face of goal and Paul Lombardo denied by Aceski.

But the final say went to Tony Josevski, allowed to run at and beat the Tigers defence before smashing his shot past a hapless Catlin.

Leichhardt: Catlin, Treharne (Lamacchia), Pettenon, Savoca, Buonavoglia, Anderson (Petrini), Tesoro, Totaro, Bazdaric (Lombardo), Alexiou, Cklamovski.

Bankstown: Aceski, Hawrysiuk (RC), Badrov, Josevski, Luksic, Eagleton, Todoroski, Van Bentum, Lozevski (Bozinovski), Velevski (Issa), Stajcic.

Blacktown City maintained their excellent form of late with a fairly comfortable 2-0 win over Central Coast at the Gabbie Stadium.

The Demons made it five wins on the trot and are now outright leaders after Macarthur's loss to Easts.

The Demons took control from the start and despite influential midfielder Pat Bradley going off with a groin strain in the 14m, were still a class above the competitive Coasties outfit.

Coasties keeper Gary Meier was kept busy throughout, saving shots from Damien Brown on three occasions, while the Demons attackers lost their target range with several narrow misses.

However their dominance was rewarded right on half time, when Jon Angelucci pounced on the loose ball to steer home after Meier could only block Alan Gordon's shot.

Peter Preston in a rare attack for the Coasties, shot wide of goal soon after break.

Blacktown was quick gain the ascendancy again and went further ahead in the 60m. Good, quick passing by the Demons ended with Damien Smith rifling his shot home.

Blacktown could have extended their lead

VALE
Col Scott-Kemmis

The soccer community of Sydney lost another dear friend recently, with the passing away of Col Scott-Kemmis after a short battle with cancer.

Col was well known and liked amongst the clubs of the NSW Soccer Federation, providing a helping hand in recent years at many finals and Waratah Cup fixtures and also serving on a number of disciplinary committees.

Col's passion was soccer and started at the Mt Colah club in the Ku-Ring-gai District Soccer Association. He was later made a life member of the KDSA.

Col was foundation President of Ku-Ring-Gai United and then a director of Ku-Ring-Gai SC, that competed in the highest echelons of the NSWSF in the 1970's and 80's.

When Col moved to Westmead he became involved with Blacktown City SC, serving as a director and secretary of the Club, up until 1991.

He was also secretary of the Super League Sub-Committee for two years.

Col served his country in the Second World War, seeing action in the Middle-East, Greece, Crete and in New Guinea.

His always cheerful and happy presence will be missed at many soccer grounds around Sydney.

but Meier and the Coasties defence fought hard to keep the score at two.

Blacktown: Greco, Foxe, Langan, Smith, Angelucci, Berry, Boudaher (Cleary), Bradley (Gordon), Yates, Blake, Brown.

Coast: Meier, Margin, Steele, Beveridge, Preston, Hagistefanis, Roberts, Sprod, Sontag, Demery, McGuire.

A whirlwind first half by Bonnyrigg White Eagles saw them score a convincing 3-0 win over Ryde City at the Serbian Centre.

Two goals by Colin Luff and the first from Robert Gomez, had the home side well in control and only lack of finishing saw the score remain at just three.

With both sides trading missed shots at goal, Bonnyrigg finally got the breakthrough goal. Mark Racker, who was involved in all three Bonnyrigg goals, knocked a good early ball to Robert Gomez, who raced towards goal before chipping his shot over Ben Hopkins in the Ryde goal.

Two minutes, Racker again advanced down the left, crossing to the near post, where Luff was able to control and shoot home from close range.

Gomez was unlucky not to have a second minutes later, hitting the post with his shot.

But Luff did make it three before the break, Racker again getting down the line and this time crossing to the back post, finding Luff who slotted home.

Ryde's best chance of the match came midway through the second half, Adam Peatey failing to capitalise on a bad back pass by Goran Vulic to Mladen Kos, shooting wide.

The win leaves Bonnyrigg trailing Blacktown by two points and are confident that they can still win the minor premiership.

Bonnyrigg: Kos, Racker, Dragas, Richardson, Mancino, Harding, Luff, Xuereb (Watton), Gomez (Poljak), Vulic (Neilson), Dee.

Ryde: Hopkins, Johnsson, Miranda, Cowley, Watkins, Kelly, Koch (Stratford), Peatey, Cetinay, Stubbs-Mills, Flack (Gledhill).

Canterbury-Marrickville kept it semi finals hopes alive with a 1-0 win over St. George at St. George Stadium.

In-form Jim Nikas scored the only goal after 28 minutes and leaves them level with Eastern Suburbs in fifth spot but well behind on goal difference.

The first half was a fairly scrappy affair with neither side in attack mode. Alex Araujo had the chance to give St. George the lead in the 9m, robbing a defender on the edge of the box but firing past the far post.

The goal came after a goalmouth melee, Nikas on the spot to tap home from close range for his ninth goal of the year.

Matthew Percy had the chance to extend that lead 13 minutes into the second half but was foiled by Trinity Allen in the Saints goal.

Saints Fabio Macolino fired inches over the bar, while Allen denied Nikas with a good save.

Further chances followed for Gordon Sutherland (Canterbury) and Araujo, both off target with their efforts.

St. George: Allen, Carter, Serratore (Magrone), Molachino, Holmes (Corbo), Araujo, Macolino, Carney, Verrender (Nakayama), Price, Jeffers.

Canterbury: Tolios, Shepherd, Percy, Hantzis, Jerkovic, Fedele, Nikas, Kategiannis (Sutherland), Markopoulos, Talcevski, Georgallis.

Sutherland Sharks caused the biggest upset of the year, beating reigning champions Parramatta Eagles 2-1 at Melita Stadium.

The unexpected loss by Parramatta, ended a miserable week which started the weekend before and the draw against Canterbury and then drawing with Ryde mid-week, a game they led twice.

A Clint Harrod goal, his first of the season, in the 89m saw Sutherland grab just their fourth win of the year and lifted them above Central Coast on the ladder.

It was a lacklustre performance by Parramatta, who needed to win to stay in touch with the leaders and their chances of retaining the premiership crown have virtually disappeared.

The Sharks defence did a great job of nullifying the Eagles deadly attack of Steve Karavatakis and Saso Petrovski, limiting them to very few shots at goal.

It wasn't until the 40m that a shot went at goal, Parramatta's Ray Younis receiving a good ball from Petrovski, but shot straight into the advancing Paul Henderson.

Just before the break Henderson came to his sides rescue again, the Eagles getting three chances to shoot at goal before the Sharks keeper was able to smother the ball on the line.

Sutherland's new found scoring machine Craig Hobbs broke the deadlock in the 56m, racing onto a long ball that caught the Eagles defence flat-footed and he finished clinically past Jason Holmes.

Parramatta eventually got on the board when Younis was able to sprint clear of the Sharks defence and shoot low under the keeper.

But the Eagles misery was completed though with a minute left on the clock, young defender Clint Harrod heading home the winning Sharks goal.

Parramatta: Holmes, Utjesenovic, Reveley, Jee, Boskovski, Petrovski, Islas, Kinnimont, O'Grady (Mittiga), Karavatakis, Younis.

Sutherland: Henderson, Saveski, Harrod, Tedesco, Bideau, McLeay, Podesta (Walsh), Hobbs, Stephen, Richardson, Griffith.

Parramatta missed the opportunity to go top of the table, after they drew 2-2 with Ryde City in their midweek deferred fixture.

Twice Parramatta had the lead only for Ryde to equalise on both occasions and could have snatched all three points but for some bad finishing.

Ray Younis opened the scoring in the 36m for his fourth goal in five matches. But in the 47m Aydin Cetinay score with a terrific shot from outside the box to even things up.

Saso Petrovski quickly restored the Eagles lead five minutes later but a Jeff Kelly special in the 69m earned Ryde a deserved point.

Macarthur Rams looking premiership material several weeks ago, have hit the skids after a 3-0 loss to Eastern Suburbs at Wentworth Park.

Worse for the Rams though was three players were giving their marching orders by referee Matthew Breeze, which could have even more serious ramifications in the remaining rounds.

They are now just three points ahead of fifth placed teams, Easts and Canterbury and with a tough run home, they had better be very careful indeed.

Both sides had a bright beginning - the game ebbing and flowing from one end to the other.

However in the 19m the game changed complexion, when a melee in the box saw Easts Mick Daniels fire at goal, the ball striking a close by Luke O'Connell on the arm. Breeze awarded the spot kick and sent O'Connell from the field, leaving the Rams down to 10-men. Daniels converted from the spot

From this point on, it was a rear guard action for the Rams and they held out bravely until half time.

Two minutes into the second half though, Macarthur found themselves down to nine men after Richard Lloyd was sent off for a late challenge on Scott Mutton.

Despite dominating possession, Easts struggled to find any gaps in the Rams defence, which battled gamely. But worse was to follow and David Kerr became the third Rams player sent-off with ten minutes to go after a dangerous tackle on Craig Sharpley.

Dispirited and severely undermanned, the Rams defence finally cracked with Jason Bennett tapping in from close range with five minutes to go and Daniels getting a second just before full-time, heading home Mike Smith's cross.

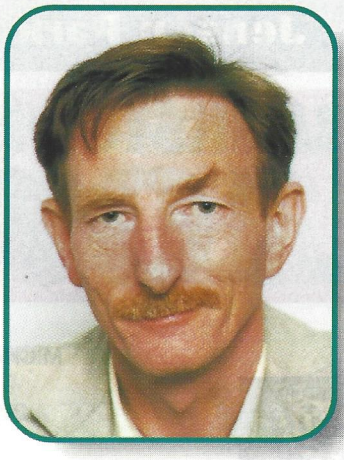
First Division Weekend Review

PAUL GOODWIN REPORTS



The three midweek catch up games proved worthwhile for previous last placed Mount Pritchard whose team managed a vital 3-2 win over closest rivals Belmore at a chilly Cook Park, in Cabramatta West last Wednesday.

Having gone ahead through a Greg Baldock corner which the keeper could only help into his own net in the 4th minute and then extending their lead in the 9th from a Victor Tomisevic finish just inside the post, Mounties might have been more relaxed about their survival prospects.

They were completely caught out in the 55th when John Pelekanos chipped young Marconi junior keeper Craig Potts with a clever piece of work to drag one goal back. Not long after this Sasha Djuric received his marching orders and the ten Mounties' men remaining endured a tense period until Joe Bruni was able to race onto a ball supplied by the fast breaking Michael Galluzzo in the 80th and net nicely.

While Belmore pulled one back in the last minute, thanks to Kon Tsousidis, it was too late and the Gold and Blacks hung on tenaciously for the three points.

At the other Cook Park, at St Marys, Penrith Panthers and Illawarra Lions, two sides in finals contention, battled out a 1-1 draw in even colder conditions.

The Hurstville City Minotaurs and Manly-Warringah Dolphins game at St George Stadium also finished all square, with a Tom Pontidas opener being cancelled out by a well struck free kick by ex-Saint Tony Krslovic. The speedy Danny Townsend had caught the Minotaurs off guard and was brought down as he made big inroads down the flank. The dropped point left Minotaurs trailing the leaders going into the weekend games.

It should have been three for the Hurstville side had George Zabetakis not missed an 88th minute penalty, the normally reliable defender striking the post instead of the target. Pontidas may get the job in future as he is now the team's leading scorer and last year's top marksman, Louis Dounis, has not been a regular this term and is leaving soon anyway to go abroad.

He did get on the scoresheet on Sunday, however, adding his name to the list on the hour after Tom Pontidas had given the Minotaurs a 1-0 lead after 36 minutes against relegation candidates Belmore Hercules at Blick Oval.

With Dario Fernandez adding a third in the 72nd to cancel out a goal from Spiro Kladis which threatened to put the home side back in contention, the Hurstville side is still handily placed should the top side slip up.

That side is still Fairfield Bulls which achieved an exciting 2-1 win at Nineveh Field against close rivals Stanmore Hawks.

Stanmore played some delightful soccer, but were a little too open at the back allowing the alert and direct Fairfield to punish them twice and steal the points.

Player coach Marshall Soper elected to stay in his tracksuit for this one and let the players do the job, but the plan could have come unstuck when front runner David Petrovic suffered an injury after only half an hour.

Happily for the Bulls they had the keen as mustard Ian Stoddart waiting on the bench and his arrival sparked the side. He was always moving forward and looking for the ball, a hunger which was turned into goals on this occasion.

An even first half saw Stanmore go close on a number of occasions, but the Hawks keeper was kept busy and were let off the hook when the elusive Darren locca hit one at the keeper and another over the bar.

Fairfield got the break the needed when in the 40th minute they had numbers pressing inside the area and Stanmore looked to play the ball around in the confines of the penalty area. An intended back pass by Theo Katsaros was perfectly placed for the lurking Stoddart to pick up and then place coolly past Paul Kyprianou.

locca shortly after struck the side netting and Stanmore's Nick Kartambis lifted a shot just wide from a range of six yards.

After Ante Zizic had nodded over from a John Tratselas cross in the 56th Eddie Briscoe took advantage of his side's push into the Fairfield half by unleashing a fierce shot from 25 yards which Bulls' keeper Angelo Rodic could not reach as he pushed it onto the underside of the bar and then over the line.

With Stanmore pressing hard for a late second half winner Fairfield snatched it themselves with barely two minutes remaining.

Robbie Grubba made a decisive tackle on the half way line and fed Rick Giometti who pushed the ball in turn to locca. The experienced spearhead was well placed to shoot, but laid the ball square for Stoddart who had showed his usual dash late in the game to arrive in the goalmouth in time to hit a stinging shot which Kyprianou could only push into the roof of the net via the woodwork.

Briscoe tried one more of his long range specials to just skim the bar, but it was too late for the Hawks whose title hopes are fading fast, but whose good football won them plenty of admirers on the day.

Stoddart showed his usual dash late in the game to arrive in the goalmouth in time to hit a stinging shot.

It was a good weekend too for Manly Warringah who beat Penrith Panthers 1-0 at Cook Park on Saturday night.

Manly had an early scare when a Brett Buckpitt header from a left sided cross looked goalbound until it hit Anthony Oppedisano in the back and the ball was then cleared to safety.

There were a few chances for Manly to follow with Danny Townsend the main player on the end of the passes, but none of his early shots were on target.

Townsend turned provider in the 57th when he sped away down the left and squared the ball in the path of Steve Riches who allowed the ball to pass further to Damien Rosenthal who smashed the ball past the imposing figure of Mike Gibson.

In the 88th Townsend had another chance to score but his flashing header from a Riches cross beat Gibson but went the wrong side of the post. The win was vital for Manly to keep clear of Penrith, a side who looked as early leaders like figuring in the finish and have slipped a little in recent weeks. Manly are now well placed to challenge for fourth spot after some ultra-consistent performances.

In the lower reaches AC United drew further away from the danger zone when they beat the unfortunate Hills United 4-3 at Abruzzi Oval on Sunday.

They were headed twice before coming back with two late goals to win it.

A half volleyed shot from the impressive Chad Gibson opened the AC account in the 5th minute and the home side may have expected to go on and dominate the match.

The Hills team have not been scoring regularly this term and it looked like staying that way as AC began to lull and resist any creative chances by Hills in the dwindling minutes of the first half.

They were punished for their complacency, however, when, in the 43rd minute, strapping striker Martin Heaton seized on a loose ball inside the box to put his side level.

AC were then in more trouble as Hills hit the front in the 44th after the keeper misjudged a cross allowing Geoff Dwyer to nip in and score.

After the break AC woke up again and Gibson went close twice before Mario Vancuylenberg was upended in the box in the 56th and player-coach Osvaldo El Ali converted from the spot.

Hills weren't finished yet, though, bouncing back after Dominic Oliverio brought down a Hills player as he went in search of the lead again.

His side got that lead from the penalty spot courtesy of Peter Vezos. But could not withstand a finishing burst from AC which showed what they could do when the chips were down.

Having come from two down to force a 2-2 draw in the corresponding fixture at Fred Caterson they backed their ability to overcome the odds once more.

The referee waved play on once in the 72nd minute when it appeared that it might have gone over the Hills' line, but a few minutes later the team's leader El Ali made his move down the right and found Zia Younan free inside the area to pierce the top right corner of the net with a deft finish at the far post.

Ten minutes from time Younan turned provider with a cross, again from the right, which allowed Mario Vancuylenberg to score the winner with a header past Shaun Woods.

Mount Pritchard had no luck up at Bathurst where the home side used their speed to advantage and claimed the winner from a cool finish from Mark Rooke in the 67th minute. Mounties were missing a few regulars, including Joe Iorifino and the suspended Sasha Djuric, also struggling to get to grips with the unfamiliar pitch at Alex Lamberton Park.

Bathurst did not fare as well next day at Hammondville Park where the home side Moorebank was also backing up after a big Saturday game.

Moorebank scored first in the 24th minute when Mick Necevski got in at the near post to finish off a corner.

Near the end Scott Watkins made a fast break and beat two defenders before drawing the keeper and then slipping the ball across to Lorenzo Merlino to tap into an empty net.

It was a good three points to add to the one they had picked the previous day against Illawarra Lions.

The Lions hit the front very early with a far post header by Valentin Tasevski, who had run through to meet a cross from the right.

Holding on well into stoppage time the Lions were stunned when Anthony Versi was able to chest the ball down from a flick on at the near post by Necevski after a corner, then slam the ball into the net for a precious equaliser.

It was all smiles for Rockdale too as the formerly goal hungry visitors seem to have fixed their defensive problems as they soaked up al Auburn could throw at them at Mona Park.

They eventually won 1-0 and had their first clean sheet in a long time.

Both Iain Macdonald and Aleks Kotevich went close with first half headers as Rockdale elected to play a cautious game until the break. Auburn had few chances and Benan Aksoy's appeals for a penalty were rewarded with a yellow card as the home side grew increasingly frustrated.

Auburn goalie, the popular Haydar Arslan, was beaten in the 67th when Alvaro Folladosa beat two defenders and then hit a low and unstoppable shot past the big keeper inside the right post.

Macdonald almost made it two when his 69th minute diving header from an Aleks Chumkovski cross went just wide.

Mark Afif got down well to save an Auburn free kick in the 76th and another nearer the end hit the wall while Spase Najdoski should have sealed it with a second near the end but sprayed the ball wide.

The win was to avenge Auburn's 3-2 win on their own ground earlier in the season.

Mark Afif got down well to save an Auburn free kick in the 76th.

ZIDANE BRINGS WORLD CUP HOME

Zinedine Zidane scored twice in the first half to lead France to their first ever World Cup triumph in an action packed final against Brazil.

Jules Rimet, the Frenchman whose idea brought the World Cup into being, would have been smiling happily in his grave, as France thoroughly outplayed the more fancied Brazilians to win 3-0.

In one of the most exciting finals in memory, Zidane laid the foundations for the win with two excellent headed goals from corners, the second crucially just seconds before half time.

Not even the sending off of Desailly midway through the second half could stop the French, as they never allowed Brazil any room to weave their magic.

And with game in injury time, a long counter attack by the French led to Petit scoring a well-deserved goal.

While Brazil was disappointing, you could take nothing away from France, who took the game up to Brazil from the start, setting the tone for the match.

Guivarc'h wasted a good chance early on with a poor first touch from Zidane's pass, thus getting no power in his shot.

France took a deserved lead in the 27th minute, after a disputed corner, taken by Petit was brilliantly headed home by Zidane at the near post.

Petit was close to a second goal for France but a slight deflection of Aldair saw the ball go narrowly wide.

France applied the killer blow though just when you thought they had blown it. Guivarc'h should have scored when clear on goal, his shot turned away for a corner. But in the succession of corners that followed, Zidane in a repeat of his first goal, scored at the near post again with a header.

Brazil, as expected, came out strong in the second half but found the relentless France defence hard to beat and Barthez in goal, keen to keep a clean sheet.

The game took a twist midway through the half with Desailly dismissal for a needless foul.

But wide Brazil pressed, France still looked in control and one of France's best players in the tournament Petit was rewarded with a well taken goal after good lead up work by Dugarry and Vieira.

In what was a sensational World Cup, it was only fitting that France should lift the trophy as they were the most consistent team throughout.

The two teams advanced to the final care of nailbiting victories in the semi finals, Brazil in a tense penalty shootout victory over Holland and France with a 2-1 win over Croatia.

Croatia's fairytale World Cup run may have died at the hands of France in the semi-finals but they showed that they are a new force in world football, with a brave 2-1 win over Holland in the battle for third place.

And it was fitting that their star of the tournament Davor Suker should strike the telling blow with a great goal five minutes before the half time break.

His angled shot through the legs of Stam and past Van der Sar was not only the winning goal but also his sixth, making him the tournaments leading goalscorer.

Croatia had earlier taken the lead through Prosinecki, with a marvellous turn and shot in the box.

But in true Dutch style, they were able to strike back through a wonderful individual goal by Zenden, whose mazy run from the right touchline was finished off with a blistering shot from outside the penalty box.

Despite dominating the second half, Holland were unable to draw level with Seerdorf having one goal disallowed and Kluivert missing what is normally bread and butter for him.

For Holland is was a bitter pill to swallow after performing heroically against Brazil and unlucky not to be in the final.

Having dominated much of the play against the reigning world champions, Holland were left shattered by the dreaded penalty shootout defeat.

A tentative start by both sides was overshadowed by Ronaldo's goal just 20 seconds into the second half, racing onto a great ball by Rivaldo and slotting home from 10 metres.

Holland kept putting the pressure on with Kluivert providing a handful for the Brazilian defence. Great work by Cocu and then Ronald de Boar, saw Kluivert eventually score a deserved equaliser with an unopposed header five minutes from time.

Extra-time did not deliver a goal and it was Brazil's goalkeeper Taffarel who came up trumps with two saves in the shootout.

Lilian Thuram was the French hero, showing his strikers the way to goal with his first goals in 37 international appearances.

His brace cancelled out Suker's goal, which came almost at the same time as Ronaldo's the previous night.

Thuram, who was rated as one of the best defenders in the tournament with his strong showings, became the unlikely source to goal with two excellent goals, which he made and finished.

2nd DIVISION

By Paul Goodwin and Tony Dunn

Hajduk Wanderers continue to apply plenty of pressure on Dulwich Hill with two good wins last week.

On Thursday night their main rivals Hajduk maintained the pressure with a win over Gladesville United at Valentine Park, both goals coming in the second half from tall midfielder Tom Maric.

The Wanderers backed up on Saturday and despite having influential midfielder J.J. Ellul sent off in the first half, managed to register a 5-0 win over Mount Druitt Town Rangers.

Damien Brown, now on 13 goals for the season, hit a hat trick inside 25 minutes, opening his account in the 56th and then adding more in the 78th and 80th.

This was not the end as both Nino Marvello and David James were also on target towards the end.

Dulwich Hill had their hands full against Greystanes at a packed Arlington Oval on Sunday where David Apps did his best to repel a well led attack by the home side. Apps pushed away a dipping shot from dos Santos and also got down well to hold a shot from Zaya Jebraiel, while at the other end Darren Waterson was denied by the Dulwich keeper and Todd Harper had a good effort just miss the top corner of the net.

Apps was less fortunate in the 51st as he was unable to reach a free kick lofted in against the sun by the wily Sasha Spiroski whose shot just went over the line before the danger could be averted by the other defenders.

John Sherry set up the crucial second goal slipping the ball to Zlatko Momircevski who finished off nicely for the 2-0 win.

Arncliffe Scots celebrated an unlikely win when they came from two goals down at Hurstville Oval to beat Hurstville ZSC 3-2.

Ex Socceroo Zlatko Nastevski claimed a hat trick on the ground where he began his Australian career after arriving unknown from the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia.

Hurstville had taken a lead in the 14th minute when a through ball in behind the defence had set up Gary Deprato to cross for Bob Simunic to head home.

Then, after Simunic had been brought down, Ivan Pavelic hit the post from the penalty spot and Tony Mihaljevic put away the rebound, in the 31st.

Arncliffe then got moving with Nastevski getting the first in the 36th when, after a series of earlier shots had been blocked, he managed to steer the loose ball in off the inside of the post.

Five minutes after the restart Nastevski finished off after a cross from Jovan Ckrovski and then in the 77th, after a dummy by Bill Pilovski allowed the ball to reach Nastevski from Chris Grasevski's pass, the ace marksman found the net from 23 yards out with a low shot. The win keeps Arncliffe's top four hopes alive.

Alexander managed a straightforward 3-0 win at Gladesville United's Westminster Park.

Manuel Pavlidis in the 16th, Ivan Elek in the 70th and Jason Lal in the 88th were the scorers against a Gladesville side which has slumped to equal last and could sink further if University of NSW can win their Wednesday night game at Seymour Shaw Park against Parramatta City.

University shrugged off the challenge from fellow relegation candidates Liverpool at David Phillips Field, an early goal from Colin Killeen and a 67th minute strike from David Poulos helping them to another important victory. They are beating each of the sides around them, which is a useful strategy, having now beaten both Gladesville and Liverpool twice and must defeat Parramatta during the week to have any real chance of survival.

Parramatta found nothing went their way at Fraser Park on Saturday where Sydney District survived a number of close calls after going to a lead inside 60 seconds.

Dan Jennings gave his barmy-army English travelling supporters a shot in the arm with a goal from a speculative strike, from 40 yards out, on the right touchline, which caught Parramatta keeper Steve Scott out completely as the ball dipped late to sail under the bar.

Jennings carved them up on the flanks along with the side's other recent signing Anthony Smith, who was unlucky not to score himself.

Parramatta caused a scare when youngster Tim Coombe got away down the right and fired in a shot which smashed against the post in the 25th and then opened up further after the break with Con Bonovas driving wide when gifted a pass by a District defender on the hour.

The outstretched legs of Scott denied Martin Abi Arrage a second goal in two games in the 66th, but the home side extended their lead in the 71st after an Aravena shot had been only parried by the keeper leaving the alert Disch to poke the ball home.

Disch was on the end of a through ball from Charlie Morales in the last minute, then laid on a pass for Smith whose shot was charged down by the keeper only for the industrious Morales to slam the loose ball into the inviting net.

Teenage Revolution

By Barry Davis

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE

Parramatta Eagles must have got the shock of their season when they visited Francis Park to play Blacktown City. although they didn't lose a game, the Eagles left with only six points to show for their efforts. Surprisingly, the 13s ended in a scoreless draw to leave them in third position on the table. They would have been expecting a difficult time in the 14s but they managed to keep that game scoreless as well. The Eagles 15s surrendered top spot when they could only manage a 3-3 draw against the fifth placed Demons. The only real joy for Parramatta came in the 16s which they won 2-1 against the highly motivated Blacktown boys.

Marconi made some more inroads into their battle to avoid the drop as they gathered another four points from their matches against competition leading Sydney Olympic at Marconi Oval. As expected, Eduardo Moerbeck's Olympic 13s maintained their unblemished record, but it must be said that the 1-0 scoreline was a lot closer than anticipated. Olympic went on to win the 14s by a comfortable 3-0 but then the home teams began to make their mark. Marconi beat the 15s league leaders 1-0 in what must be seen as a fabulous result for them and then their 16s ended scoreless against an Olympic team which has struggled to find consistent form all season.

Sutherland did very well indeed in gaining ten points from relegation threatened Manly Warringah at Bates Drive. The 13s ended with the home team winning by the odd goal in five and then Sutherland's 14s beat the visitors by the only goal of the match. Max Groll's 15s may have dented their hopes of a top four place ever so slightly as they finished their game in a 3-3 draw but their 16s came good with a 1-0 win against the unpredictable Manly team.

Despite their presence in the "Drop Zone" Eastern Suburbs showed that they will not go down without a fight by earning four valuable points against Newcastle Breakers at Topper Stadium. Newcastle won the 13s 1-0 against their higher placed opponents. Easts struck back with a goal-apiece draw in the 14s , a match which the home team would have been expecting to win. The Breakers had a comfortable 3-0 win in the 15s to maintain their top three spot. However, the "shock of the day" result came in the 16s as Easts rolled the second-placed Breakers 3-2, a result which must have rattled the normally unflappable Graham Jennings.

Wollongong City did very well to hold Southern Districts to five points each at Brandon Park. Districts appear to be going through a bit of a form slump as a Youth League club and they will need to arrest that downward slide if they are to remain in touch with the top two on the Combined Table. The Wolves snatched a 2-2 draw in the 13s as the clubs shared the points before the Districts 14s proved why they are the top team in that age group with a 3-1 win. Wollongong provided yet another "shock" result in the 15s as they rolled the higher placed Wolves 3-0 and then the 16s held the visitors to a 1-1 draw in an unexpected result.

There were only nine points on offer at the Croatia Sports Centre as Sydney United played host to Gladesville Hornsby. For those who don't know, Gladesville's 16s are currently in Sweden competing in the Gothia Cup, an international Youth Carnival and they have already played against `United. In the 13s United managed to hold the high flying Gladesville to a 1-1 draw and then the 14s ended without a goal being scored.. Gladesville scored their first win of the day in a closely contested 15s with a 2-1 victory.

tom grouping and they added to their tally with a seven point haul against Leichhardt Tigers at Lynwood Park. The Rams have hopes of seeing their 13s in the top at season's end and they did their chances no harm with a 1-0 win thanks to a goal from Tom Mills who has unfortunately missed a large chunk of the season. Tony Judge's 14s continued the good form for the home club with a 2-1 win . In the first round the Tigers gave the Rams 15s a real mauling but that was certainly no the case this time around. In fact the Rams could have led 2-0 before the break had Paul Rankin's header and David Carney's shot not been saved superbly. Carney in fact gave to Rams the lead with a well taken shot in the second stanza before Catelli equalised with a very good free kick for the equaliser and then Carbone provided a good winner for the visitors. The Rams also led 1-0 in the 16s thanks to a good goal from Matthew Thompson but then Mihalajek conjured up an equaliser.

DIVISION ONE YOUTH LEAGUE

Central Coast did well again last weekend as they earned ten point from Rockdale City Suns at The Rockdale Sports Centre. Their 13s had a very comfortable 5-0 win while the 14s were held to a 1-1 draw in a surprise result. The Coasties went on to win both the 15s and the 16s by 1-0 scorelines and both of those results were much closer than one would have expected.

St George also continue to make things interesting at the top end of the table as they picked up another ten points from their clash with Bonnyrigg White Eagles. Saints won the 13s 3-1 to retain top spot and the 14s won 2-1 to stay in touch with table topping AC United. Bonnyrigg did well to hold St George to a 0-0 draw in the 15s but Saints returned to their winning ways in the 16s with a 2-0 result.

Illawarra Lions grabbed most of the points from their games against Penrith Panthers at the BHP Sports Ground. Lions won the 13s 4-2 as expected but their 14s were held 0-0 in a top half encounter.. Lions resumed the winning in the 15s with a 2-1 win. However, the Panthers hit back in the 16s to retain third spot with a 3-1 win.

Bankstown had to be content with an even split of the points at Neville Reserve where they played the improving Ryde City. Ryde struck first with a 1-0 result in the 13s but the home team won the 14s by the same score to square accounts. The 15s battled out a 2-2 draw and then Ryde held Bankstown 1-1 in the final game for the day.

Southern Branch blitzed Blacktown Association at Zealand Park with a twelve point haul. The visitors scored their only goal of the day in the 13s but Southern scored five. They won the 14s 2-0 and then handed Blacktown's 15s their second defeat of the season when they also won 2-0. Norm Boardman's 16s continued the assault on the top four with a 3-0 victory.

CSI Schofields did not improve their chances of avoiding the drop to the lower division when they could only take one point from AC United at the CSI Ground. Their solitary point came from a 1-1 draw in the 13s and then AC took control. They won the 14s 4-2 and then followed up with a 2-1 win in the 15s.. AC then provided a soccer lesson for their opponents with a 9-0 hiding.

Nepean Association chipped away at their points deficit by earning six points from their matches against Canterbury Association at Punchbowl Oval. Canterbury won the 13s 3-2 but the visitors bounced straight back with a 2-1 win in the 14s. Not to be outdone, Canterbury won the 15s 2-0 but Nepean had the final ord for the day with a cliff-hanging 4-3 win in the 16s.

DIVISION TWO YOUTH LEAGUE

Mount Pritchard showed that they are far from out of contention as they took twelve very valuable points from Ku-Ring-Gai Association at Cook Park. The early games were reasonably close with Mounties winning the 13s 1-0 in a bit of a shock result and then winning the 14s 2-1. They then took the visitors to the cleaners in the late games with a 7-1 win in the 15s and a 5-1 win in the 16s.

Stanmore Hawks did not do as well as they would have liked in their matches against Parramatta City at Eric Primrose Reserve. They won the 13s 3-0 but City returned the favour with a 1-0 win in the 14s to provide a bit of a shock for their top four placed opponents. The Hawks won the 15s by an unexpectedly close 1-0 and then the 16s battled out a 1-1 draw.

Mt Druitt Town Rangers had a good day against Granville Association, earning nine points from their games at Popondetta Park. The Rangers won the 13s and 14s 3-0 and 2-0 respectively. Granville showed why they are in third place in the 15s with a 2-1 win but it must be said that a larger margin was expected. In the 16s Rangers gave their guests a drubbing with a 7-1 win.

Hills United would have been hoping for more than the seven points they gained from their encounter with Hajduk Wanderers at Fred Caterson Reserve. Hills won the 13s comfortably with a 4-0 scoreline but then the Wanderers bit back to beat the table-topping Hills 1-0 in the 14s. The home team got the better of the visitors in the 15s with a 1-0 win and then the 16s ended in a goal-apiece draw.

Hawkesbury City could only manage to secure four points from their matches against Macquarie Sports at Bensons Lane Reserve. Things started well enough as they held their third placed visitors to a 1-1 draw in the 13s and then City won the 14s 2-0 but that was to be the end of their points acquisition for the day. Macquarie won the 15s 3-2 and then repeated the dose with a similar scoreline in the 16s.

In a Round 5 catch-up match in the 16s Mount Pritchard earned a 2-1 win against Hills United.
